

Project Notes

- Giedrycz Master Bath:

The key to this project was creating an open concept space enhanced by the zero entry Curb-less shower. The vanity was a full custom unit, expanding from wall to wall with a commanding presence, enriched by the full accent tile nested from countertop to the ceiling.

- Njani Peterson Kitchen :

This was a one-of-a-kind project for an original Pennsylvania farmhouse built in the 1700s. The key here was being able to retain some of the original elements which provided timeless charm, while also implementing the practical necessity for insulation and structural safety foundation. The floor showcases original Pine while the cabinets are a custom vintage sage All tapped by limestone countertops. We were able to leave the exposed beams as a token to the charm this house possessed from inception, hundreds of years ago.

- Hess kitchen

The scope of this project was to eliminate the compartmentalized sensation that came from the Peninsula and separate sitting area. Removing the peninsula and extending the island with a long row of Cabinets brought a feeling of enhanced space and grandeur. Vanilla cabinet with a contrasting navy island gave the space an elegant look with an approachable homey touch.

- Stacey Goldberg Master Bath

This unique bathroom boasts a golden Carrera porcelain tile print kept by a Turkish natural stone on a countertops, bench caps, knee wall, caps, and thresholds. The champagne brands finish flows effortlessly with a bronze veins from both the vanity and countertops.

-LaShannon Master Bath

This bathroom showcases a full custom vanity with polished wood, natural quartz stones, a mother of pearl freestanding tub complemented by mother of pearl vessel sinks. A striking bathroom in which elegance meets earth

-Ganescu Kitchen

The key with this kitchen was storage. This was a space that was being used thoroughly for its purpose, and therefore it was important to find a way to allow storage capacity in a way that was not overwhelming to the space. The reduced depth, Cabinets allowed for the room to flow without intruding in the passage. And extended countertop at a lower chair, height brought the kitchen into the seating area seamlessly

- Rubin Kitchen :

This kitchen was a great example of using whites and grays without creating a sterile environment. The textured floors. And two-tone hood/peninsula dressing add the character to the space. Stacked cabinets were used to enhance the feeling of grandeur by removing the existing soffits and lifting storage all the way to the ceiling kept by a clean crown. Brushed nickel hardware/ faucets to keep the silver underlining palette

-Carolyn Frank Master Bath

I truly unique Bathroom boasting a Macaubas Azul vibrant tile, with a large drop in tub and a custom glass enclosure.
Chrome finishes, add to the vibrancy

- Lee Kitchen

A large project of serious structural endeavor. Half of the kitchen was on a lower step down level the entire half of the kitchen had to be raised in order to create a seamless one height floor space. Windows and doors have to be lifted in order to accomplish that.
A beautiful natural quartz countertop steals the show on a centered large island.
Off-white cabinets with a two tone navy island color.

- Emad Bathroom

This bathroom showcases a floor to ceiling monochromatic tile giving the illusion of a modern cave. A geometric freestanding tub adds a modern touch while a recessed flatscreen TV offers the ultimate comfort.

- Levinson Master

Master bathroom with custom vanity, allowing for a make up station. Statuario porcelain tiles on a soft grey floor , capped by matte black finishes

-Giedrycz Kitchen

Full custom kitchen designed around the arched extension by the sink. A vibrant light Navy color, complemented by a clean white set of upper cabinet cabinets all capped by Porcelain countertop showcasing a wide reveal

-Trudel

A fantastic example of modern farmhouse kitchen. A washed Teal island takes the center, surrounded by white shaker cabinet and wide appliances.
The exposed beams were preserved, running the electric through inconspicuous conduits.
Floors were refinished, giving a washed oak that is welcoming to all the cabinet colors

- Oleg Kitchen

White cabinet kitchen with a quartz countertop, matte, black finishes, and textured subway backsplash

- Barembaum

Reclaimed wood vanity with a stunning accent wall. Custom glass enclosure over a floating shower bench.

- Kohl Kitchen

This kitchen showcases a large restructuring of the previous space in which walls had to be removed in order to allow for the wide open space concept accomplished. Soft grey cabinets with a contrasting navy Island capped by Cambria countertops .

- Hornig Kitchen

A beautiful kitchen showcasing stacked cabinets to the ceiling, cleaned by a crown. Matching black island, textured sub, backsplash and a mix of Brushed Brass and Matte black finishes to bring elegance within the space

- Slingsby Kitchen

Custom kitchen, cabinetry by Welborn showcasing a soft, sage tone with a contrastive White Island and picket fence ceramic backsplash

- O'Laughlin

Large kitchen accomplished by removing adjacent walls and expanding the area from the back to the front of the house. Shaker cabinets with large extended fridge, wide hood, and Zelig multitone backsplash textured tiles. Faucets and fixtures and brushed brass and matte Black.

- O'Donnell

Exotic coastal bathroom accomplished with soft wood grains on a custom vanity that runs from wall to wall. Across a 6 foot shower boasting vibrant, blue, and teal exotic stone print porcelain. Brushed Brass finishes add to the warmth

- Pete V

This master bathroom showcases a textured large set porcelain tile, flowing from shower walls, bathroom floor, and shower floor to create a seamless look, enhanced by the zero entry Curb-less shower floor.

Champagne bronze finishes to contrast the beautiful blue tones of the tiles

- McBride Kitchen

White cabinets with natural quartzite countertops, matte, black, finish, and glazed backsplash tiles

- Sharada

Textured Exotic tile on the walls, sitting on a soft Wood-Like plank and painted just mist vanity with Brushed Brass finishes

- Prager

Large kitchen with full custom cabinets, garage drawers, and a contrast thing walnut Island capped by a Cambria Quartz countertop.

Champagne, bronze, finishes, and herringbone backsplash tiles

- Garvey :

Large master bathroom with hexagon natural stone tiles, zero entry Curbless shower and brushed brass finishes along with a freestanding tub

- Borgia

This bathroom showcases a custom vanity with over-the-counter storage unit. Large slab tiles going floor to ceiling. A waterfall quartz stone dresses, the top and front of the tub.

-Cruz Master

This bathroom showcases a zero entry curb, less shower with accent tiles, wrapping around the entirety of the bathroom. A floating vanity with back lit mirror and the black tub add to the unique nature of this masterpiece.

- Guttridge

Practical master bathroom redesigned to fit a full laundry area space. Soft Wood-like plank porcelain on the floor, soft brown vein Carrera porcelain on the walls and painted mist custom cabinetry. Champagne bronze finishes

- Hershey

Statuario Porcelain large set tile on bathroom floor and shower walls with gray vanity cabinets, and matte black finishes

- Bryn Michaels

Two-tone kitchen with multicolor natural green backsplash, and brush brushed brass finishes.

-Ferrie

This kitchen was accomplished by using a two tone, navy and white combination capped by a quartz stone and champagne bronze finishes

- Larkin

This kitchen required large structural arrangements, including walls, being removed and a redesigning of the window in order to allow for the large front glass above the sink.

Cherry Amber Cabinets with Black Island capped by a butcher block. Herringbone brick floors.

- Broderick

Large kitchen accomplished with considerable restructuring, including wall removal and enclosing outer exits and redirecting them in adjacent rooms.

This kitchen extends in the heart of the house with a large center island, a wide beverage station, and a cooking area where all kitchen activities can take place.

Cherry, Amber Cabinets with navy two tone and natural quartzite stone countertops.

- Vartanian

This hall bathroom showcases, a beautiful boutique multi tone glazed subway tile, extending out of the shower for the entirety of the vanity wall to make an immediate statement upon entry.

Brushed brass finishes by Kohler and JAMES Martin vanity.

- Kaarby

Textured boutique cream subway tiles on the shower walls. Large set Exotic print porcelain on the floors. Black vanity, and brushed brass finishes.